	Volume One – It Matters How We Say It What supports and services are available to individuals who struggle with mental retardation, mental illness and severe physical disabilities? Why shouldn't they gain the self-determination—as the rest of us do—to live a life of value? What is our role in supporting the path to their preferred future? ISBN: 1-892696-15-0 / Order #: HT13
Volume Two – Challenging the Gatekeepers How do our roles and the roles we assign to people with developmental disabilities prevent them from living their preferred lives? Do we allow them to expand according to their needs and desires? Who are the Gatekeepers who perpetuate outmoded beliefs about learning and behavior? ISBN: 1-892696-16-9 / Order #: HT14
	Volume Three – Obstacles to Opportunities Relationships, opportunities and choices—these are all essential building blocks of a life of meaning. Whose life? Everyone's life, including people with developmental disabilities. But, how are choices made for these individuals? ISBN: 1-892696-17-7 / Order #: HT15
Volume Four – Venturing Beyond the Iron Gate Integration. Participation. Relationships. These are the elements of a full and satisfying life. How can we support a person with a developmental disability to achieve these outcomes, as well as to fully participate in their community? ISBN: 1-892696-18-5 / Order #: HT16
